PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

So they brought the colt to Jesus and put their cloaks over it. And he sat on it. Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut from the fields. - Mk 11:7-8

Mission Statement

The parish of the Shrine Church of St. Jude is a family of Christians created in the image of a loving God. He has given us faith and gifts which we nurture by His Word and Eucharist. Sent forth by Christ, we strive to share Him with others in our daily lives and to spread His message of salvation to all. We welcome all people seeking communion with us. We respond to Christ's command to teach all people through instruction in the Catholic Faith in our religious education programs and Catholic School. With Christ as our cornerstone, we attempt to minister to the body, mind, and spirit of our fellow human beings. We pray for God's help and guidance, and that we may love each other as brothers and sisters in the Lord building up the Kingdom of God.

Palm Sunday Year B 2024

Isaiah 50:4-7, Phil. 2:6-11, Mark 14:1-15:48
“Truly this man was God’s son.”

As we traverse the final weeks of Lent and enter into Holy Week, a profound invitation beckons us to plumb the depths of the mysteries we commemorate. The veiling of statues and crucifixes serves as a silent call to introspection during these sacred days.

Palm Sunday inaugurates Holy Week, a sacred passage leading us inexorably toward the zenith of our faith, Easter. Embarking on this spiritual odyssey of preparation, the liturgy guides us to contemplate Christ's profound journey of suffering and sacrifice. St. Paul's poignant words resonate deeply as we ponder Christ's deliberate embrace of human frailty. Despite His divine essence, Christ chose to walk among us, tasting the bitterness of hardship and rejection. His triumphant entry into Jerusalem, amidst acclamations that would soon morph into accusations, mirrors our own humanity, laying bare eternal truths about our proclivity for sin and betrayal, prompting us to examine the fidelity of our professed faith.

Through the lens of St. Mark's gospel, we witness the betrayal of Judas, the denial of Peter, and the abandonment of the disciples. In the somber shadows of Calvary, a Roman Centurion utters a declaration that echoes through the annals of time: "Truly this man was God's son." In this climactic moment, divine affirmation converges with human acknowledgment, as the temple veil is rent asunder.

As the Son of God endures the agony of the cross, Isaiah's prophetic words remind us that Christ's vicarious atonement is for our sins. Through His wounds, we are healed; through His suffering, we find redemption. Thus, we fervently pray that Christ's sacrificial offering may not be in vain, but instead propel us towards the embrace of the boundless joy of being healed and the glory of salvation won for us.
