EASTER SUNDAY

He bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. - Jn 20:5-7

WELCOME AND HELP US SUSTAIN OUR SPIRITUAL HOME

We are blessed to have you join us at St. Jude Shrine R.C. Church through this week as you witness the greatest love story of all time. We have made it easy for those of you who would prefer to give electronically via text or QR. You can send a text to 929-822-4867 and use the keyword "Sunday" to offer your donation or scan the attached QR code. Electronic giving is secure, practical and saves us resources

Your prayers and gifts help us everyday in our mission.

Mission Statement

The parish of St. Jude Shrine R.C. Church is a family of Christians created in the image of a loving God. He has given us faith and gifts which we nurture by His Word and Eucharist. Sent forth by Christ, we strive to share Him with others in our daily lives and to spread His message of salvation to all. We welcome all people seeking communion with us. We respond to Christ's command to teach all people through instruction in the Catholic Faith in our religious education programs and Catholic School. With Christ as our cornerstone, we attempt to minister to the body, mind, and spirit of our fellow human beings. We pray for God's help and guidance, and that we may love each other as brothers and sisters in the Lord building up the Kingdom of God.

Easter Sunday
Acts 10:34, 37-43, Colossians 3:1-4, John 20:1-9
Happy Easter, Dear Friends!

We eagerly awaited this glorious day, filled with shouts of joy and thanksgiving. Indeed, let us rejoice and be glad. In the timeless words of St. John Chrysostom, let all devout souls and lovers of God revel in the magnificence of this feast; let the faithful servants joyfully partake in their Lord's delight; let those who have endured the Lenten journey now reap their reward, and those who labored from the earliest hours, let them receive their just due. Christ the Lord

To those who arrived after the third hour, join in the celebration with gratitude. To those who came after the sixth, fear not being tardy; for the Lord is merciful, welcoming the last as graciously as the first. He offers solace to the eleventh-hour arrivals just as He honors the efforts of those who labored from the outset. Come, one and all, and share in the joy of your Lord. Whether first or last, receive your reward alike; whether rich or poor, dance together; whether strong or weak, rejoice today. Christ the Lord has risen!

Behold, the table is abundantly set; partake in its regal feast. Let none depart unfed. Embrace the banquet of faith; receive the riches of His benevolence. Let no one lament their poverty, for the kingdom of God is unveiled; let no one weep over their sins, for forgiveness emanates from the grave; let no one dread death, for our Savior's demise has liberated us: He conquered death by enduring it, He plundered Hades by descending into its depths, He defied it by allowing it to taste His flesh. Christ the Lord has risen!

O death, where is your sting? O Hades, where is your victory? Christ is risen, and your dominion is nullified. Christ is risen, and demons are vanquished. Christ is risen, and angels exult. Christ is risen, and life is unshackled. Christ is risen, and the tomb is stripped of its captives; for Christ, having risen from the dead, has become the Pioneer and Restorer of those who slumbered. To Him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen, Alleluia!
